“The Night of Power”

Monday, September 6th

Ramadan Night of 27th

Program starts with Isha at 9:15 PM

- Join us for the completion of the Holy Quran by Hafiz Majid on this special evening.
- Don't miss it!!! It is peace until Fajr. “I am as my servant thinks I am. ... And if he draws near to me an arm's length, I draw near to him a fathom's length. And if he comes to me walking, I go to him at speed.” (Qudsi Hadith)
- Plan to take a day or half day off on Tuesday Sept 7th.
- You are welcome to bring a snack/dessert to share.
- Make an intention for I'tikaf (see I'tikaf schedule at ICBN for details).

FOR EACH TIME THERE IS AN ASSIGNED WORK

In the name of God, Most Gracious, Most Merciful. God's Blessing and Peace be upon His Prophet Muhammad, His Āl al-Bayt, Companions, Brothers and Party.

Dear Brothers and Sisters in faith, God—Exalted be He—says in Sūrat al-Mulk (Qur'an 67:2): “He Who created Death and Life, that He may try which of you is best in deed.”

Between life and death there is a lifespan during which man should work righteousness and worship God. Since your lifetime is your capital, you should organize it and apportion it between the different duties and assignments so that none of them may overwhelm the other. For the most important thing is not to do whatever you wish whenever you wish, Rather, the most important thing is to do the right work at the right time.

Therefore, you should learn the acts of the heart, the tongue and the other organs that are requisite at a particular time, seek them and do your utmost to perform them in their specific time so that God may accept them. In his testament to 'Umar bnu al-Khattāb when he nominated him as his successor, Abū Bakr as-siddīq said: “Know that God has commanded (from us) daytime acts that He does not accept at nighttime. And He has commanded from us nighttime acts that He does not accept in daytime.”
